

ABSTRACT

The invention concerns a pharmaceutical preparation for the treatment of wounds in animals or humans containing or consisting of a lipopeptide or 5 lipoprotein which carries at the N-terminals a dihydroxypropyl-cysteine group with two, optionally long-chain, fatty acids bonded via ester bonds.